About The Author

Leonard Horton, Jr. with wife, Paulette Davis-Horton

Leonard Horton, Jr. is a 1969 graduate of Central High School. He is the son of Leonard Bernard Horton, Sr. and Hazel Horton. Leonard is also the father of Leonard, III and Kenya Kylene. Upon graduating from Central, Leonard entered the US Air Force. He later became a 1986 graduate of the University of South Alabama as an Arts Major. He credits his wife with assisting him on the complex research for this book. His wife, Paulette Davis-Horton, is the author of the book, "Avenue, The Davis Avenue Story." It was through the contribution of the memories of many Mobilians, that her book and this book were completed. Hopefully, these works will be an eternal show of gratitude and respect.
